

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, June 20.
Chauncey Depew has been asked by President Harrison to give up $50,000 a year as President of the New York Central Railroad to accept $8,000 a year and the honor attached to being Secretary of State. Very naturally Mr. Depew has asked for time to consider the matter. It is also probable that Mr. Depew will wish to consult with the Vanderbilts, whose interests he so largely represents, as he might desire to resume his place if political life did not come up to his expectations. The story goes that in order to obtain his acceptance of the State portfolio President Harrison told him that he would endeavor to smooth the way for him to get the Republican nomination in 1896. There are so many ifs in that programme that it is doubtful whether it will exercise much influence with Mr. Depew, who is credited with being too shrewd a business man to allow himself to give up a certainty for something that is more than uncertain. If Mr. Depew becomes Secretary of State what will become of Secretary Tracy? If President Harrison keeps two New York men in the Cabinet there will be growing, and if he puts Secretary Tracy into the vacancy in the Supreme Court, which would, according to his friends, please the Secretary very much, there would be still more growing.

President Harrison is a much shrewder politician than any one of those who helped to nominate him. I say "helped" advisedly, for, although this and that man have been credited with having won the fight for Mr. Harrison, the fact remains, undisputed among those who know the inside workings of things political, that Mr. Harrison never for one instant allowed the supreme management of his canvass to go out of his own hands, and that he owes his re-nomination more directly to himself than to any other one man. Whether this is to his credit or otherwise depends much upon your point of view. With that I have nothing to do; the point to be made plain is the political shrewdness of Mr. Harrison, which many are disposed to underrate.

An evidence of that shrewdness was given when he telegraphed to Minneapolis ordering his followers to stop abusing Mr. Blaine—that telegram was a tremendous factor in the fight. He is now giving another evidence of his shrewdness by making those members of his party who worked against him at and before the Convention feel that he bears them no ill-will, and he is doing it right along, while some of his fool-follower are running around blowing about how "we downed 'em." These things must not be lost sight of by those who attempt to figure up in advance the probable result of this campaign. In the minds of many people it is beneath the dignity of a President to personally take part in the management of a political campaign, but it must not be forgotten that there are also many men who admire the "get there" quality above all others.

Representative Watson made an ineffectual attempt when the House adjourned from Saturday to Wednesday to get the House to agree to giving the rest of the week beginning on Wednesday to a debate on the Sub-Treasury Bill. The failure was partly due to the fact that it had been fully understood that the House would upon meeting on Wednesday adjourn to Saturday. In order to give all the Democratic members a chance to stay in Chicago, whooping it up for their favorites, until the nomination is made.

Civil-Service Commissioner Roosevelt is happy. He has been vindicated by the Democratic majority of the House Committee on Reform in the Civil Service, which has been investigating the report he made charging that certain Federal officials in Baltimore had violated the Civil-Service Law. The Democrats on the Committee have agreed to a lengthy report in which they say Mr. Roosevelt's report was correct, while that made by direction of Postmaster-General Wanamaker by Post-office Inspectors was incorrect. The report also very sharply criticizes Mr. Wanamaker and says that his actions indicate a determination on his part not to enforce the law. There is one drawback, however, to Mr. Roosevelt's enjoyment. Not a single Republican on the Committee agreed to the majority report, and the minority report, which will be signed by the Republicans on the Committee, will probably stand by Mr. Wanamaker.

H. L. Loucks of Huron, South Dakota, Vice-President of the National Farmers Alliance, has arrived at the headquarters in this city and assumed the duties of President of that organization. The official Notification Committee called at the White House to-day to tell Mr. Harrison that the Minneapolis Convention had nominated him for President, and he seemed as much pleased as though he was hearing it for the first time.

Good Looks.
Good Looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the Liver be inactive, you have a Bilious Look; if your stomach be disordered, you have a Dyspeptic Look, and if your kidneys be affected, you have a Pinched Look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative and tonic; acts directly on these vital organs. Cures Pimples, Bileuses, Boils, and gives a good complexion. Sold at George M. Wood's Drug Store, 20c. per bottle—Advt.

Just like clock-work—that's the way your whole system moves along, when Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets have put it in order. That's what they're made for—to regulate the system as well as cleanse and renovate it. These are the original Little Liver Pills, tiny, sugar-coated, and bilious granules; mild and gentle in their action, but thorough and effective—no pain, no griping. One Little Pellet for a laxative—three for a cathartic. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach, and bowels are promptly relieved and permanently cured. They're the smallest, easiest, and best to take—and the cheapest pill you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get. Can you ask more or better proof of the superiority of these little pills?
